

Instructions for 2020/2021 season Skills Maintenance (Proficiency).

Welcome to the 2020/21 Skills Maintenance (Proficiency). This year Skills Maintenance will be a little different to previous years; there will still be a practical component (this year will be a run swim run only- with dates listed at the bottom of this handout and sent out via SurfGuard) and a theory component that this year will be conducted online. This handout is to assist you with accessing the online theory component of your Skills Maintenance.

You should have all by now received an email (see the screenshot below from etrainu- mine was sent out 19 August) directing you to the Skills Maintenance Theory component of your Proficiency.

The screenshot shows an email from etrainu LMS. The main content area has a light blue background. At the top, there's a banner image showing two lifeguards on a beach with a red flag. The text "NEW COURSE" is overlaid on the right side of the banner. Below the banner, the text reads: "Hi Shauna", "You have been allocated the following online course:", "Skills Maintenance 2020/21 Bronze Medallion Theory". Then it says: "To access your assigned course please log into the Members Area by clicking on the button below. If you are having trouble logging in, please log a support ticket here." At the bottom, there is a red button that says "Access Members Area".

If however you are unable to find the email, please don't worry- you just need to get into the Members Area of SLS Australia as shown below.

Enter "SLS Australia Member Area" into the search field.

Note: you will need to have your own personal Members Area Username and Password (if you are registered as a family it may require you to create individual usernames and passwords for those in your family that need to complete Skills Maintenance).

Note: make sure you use one of the following web browsers;

SLSA eLearning

Surf Life Saving Australia (SLSA) has a number of online courses available to support members in completing their SLSA awards in a more flexible manner. Currently online courses are available in the following streams: Aquatic Search and Rescue, Emergency Care, Beach Management and Powercraft. There are also Safety and Wellbeing, Skills Maintenance and Age Managers options available to be completed online.

The online courses available typically cover the theory components and are designed in many cases to be completed in conjunction with a course Learner Guide which you can access from the SLSA Members Area Library. In most cases you will also participate in practical training activities and assessments organised by your surf lifesaving club or SLS state/territory centre to achieve competency in the SLSA award.

An online version of the SLSA eLearning User Guide can be found within the SLSA IT Helpdesk Online Help Library.

If the below state/territory information is incorrect, please contact your surf life saving club before clicking the below login button to log into the eLearning system.

Our records show that you will be studying in state: NSW. If this is incorrect, please contact your organisation of membership.

It may take a moment to load but you will then need to click on "Training Library" to the left of your screen. This will open your course categories- Choose "SLS- Skills Maintenance" as highlighted below.

The screenshot shows the SLSA eLearning interface. On the left is a sidebar with the user's name "Shauna Abrahamson" and their level ".MS LEVEL". Below this are links for "Logout", "Home", "Training Library", "Training Event", "My Training", and "Help". A yellow arrow points to the "Training Library" link. The main area is titled "Course Categories" and displays six course cards, each with a photo and a "VIEW COURSES" button. The courses are: "SLS - Autism", "SLS - Aquatic Rescue", "SLS - Emergency Care", "SLS - Officiating", "SLS - Safety and Wellbeing", and "SLS - Skills Maintenance". A yellow arrow points to the "SLS - Skills Maintenance" card.
